MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: Commander's Policy Letter #18 - Exception to Policy Procedures

1. Applicability. This policy applies to all personnel requesting exception to installation policies at Fort A.P. Hill (FAPH), Virginia, 22427
2. Proponent. FAPH Deputy Garrison Commander.
3. Purpose. To provide guidance for requesting exception to existing FAPH published policies.
4. General. Installation policies allow for activities to be conducted IAW statutory and regulatory requirements to ensure legal, safe, and efficient conduct of operations and training activities at FAPH.
5. Procedures. Should conditions exist that require individuals or organizations to operate outside of published installation policies, the following procedures will be followed:
 - a. Requesting Individual/Organization. Submit a written request to the FAPH proponent of the applicable policy. Request will include specifics of the request for exception (who, what, when, where, why, and how) and a composite risk management assessment if applicable (DA Form 7566).
 - b. FAPH Proponent. Coordinate request for exception with appropriate installation staff. Submit request materials with consolidated recommendation to the Garrison Commander in a timely manner (usually within 72-hours). If staff coordination is expected to take longer than 72-hours, advise the Deputy Garrison Commander or Garrison Command Sergeant Major.
 - c. FAPH Deputy Garrison Commander. Will issue a written decision for an exception to a specific policy including any specific instructions to the requestor and/or proponent. The Garrison Commander is the approval authority for all exception to policy requests.
 - d. FAPH Proponent. Communicate decision to requestor and impacted installation staff, specifically the date/time if request is approved. Maintain a record of all requests for exception (and results) to policies for which you are proponent.

SUBJECT: Commander's Policy Letter #18 - Exception to Policy Procedures

6. Requests for exceptions to FAPH policy will be subject to a thorough review of associated risk and appropriate mitigating measures and will not be granted if it is deemed that the same outcome can be achieved by operating within the parameters of the existing policy.
